EDINBURGH.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Monday Nov. 18.

THE following Addresses were given in and read, viz. Address of Barons, Freeholders and others within the Burgh of Kirckubright subscribing the same; Address of Heretors and Householders of the Paroch of Crawford Subscribers of the same; Address of the Magistrats, Dean of Gild, Treasurer, Gild Council, Deacons of Trades, Members of the Town Council of the Burgh of Cowpar in Fife, and others Gilden Traders and Burghers of the said Burgh Subscribers of the same; Address of the Presbyteries of Lanerk subscribing the same; Address of Heretors, Elders and Masters of Families in the Town and Out-paroch of Lanerk Subscribers of the same; Address of Heretors and Householders of the Paroch of Crawford-John Subscribers of the same; all against an Union with England in the Terms of the Articles. Thereafter the Third Article of Union was again read, whereupon it was moved, That the agreeing to the Third Article of the Treaty in Relation to the Parliament of Great-Britain shall not be binding or have any Effect, unless Terms and Conditions of Union of the Two Kingdoms, and particularly the Constitution of the said Parliament be finally adjusted and concluded, and an Act pass'd thereupon in this Parliament, and that the saids Terms and Conditions be also agreed to and ratified by an Act of the Parliament of England. The Constitution of the Parliament of Great-Britain being left intire until the Parliament come upon the 22d Article;

Moved also to proceed to the Consideration of the Fourth and other Articles of Union before the Third. And after some reasoning thereupon, it was put to the Vote proceed to the Consideration of the Third Article in the Terms of the above Motion relating thereto, or proceed to the Fourth Article, and it carried proceed to the Third. And accordingly the Parliament proceeded to the Consideration of the Third Article; and after long Debate thereupon, a Vote was stated, approve of the Third Article in the Terms of the said Motion relating thereto, yea or no. But before voting the Marquis of Annandale gave in a Protest and craved that the Narrative of the Resolve inserted in the Minutes of the 4th of this Instant November, might be prefix'd thereto, and the Narrative and Protest is as follows, viz. Whereas it evidently appears since the printing and considering of the Articles of the Treaty now before this House, this Nation seems generally averse to this incorporating Union in the Terms now before us, as subversive of the Sovereignty, Fundamental Constitution and Claim of Right of this Kingdom, and as threatening Ruine to this Church as by Law established. And since it is plain that if an Union were agreed to in these Terms by the Parliament and accepted of by the Parliament of England, it would in no sort answer the peaceable and friendly Ends proposed by an Union; but would on the contrary create such dismal Divisions and Animosities amongst ourselves, and such Jealousies and Mistakes betwixt us and our Neighbours as would involve these Nations into fatal Breaches and Confusions. Therefore I do protest for my self and in the Name of all those who shall adhere to this my Protestation, that an incorporating Union of the Crown and Kingdom of Scotland with the Crown and Kingdom of England, and that both Nations be represented by one and the same Parliament as contain'd in the Atticles of the Treaty of Union, is contrary to the Honour, Interest, fundamental Laws and Constitution of this Kingdom, is a giving up the Sovereignty, the Birthright of the Peers, the Rights and Privileges of the Barons and Broughs, and is contrary to the Claim of Right, Property and Liberty of the Subjects, and Third Act of Her Majesty's Proclamation 1703; by which it is declared high Treason in any of the Subjects of this Kingdom to quarrel or endeavour, by writing, malicious and abusive Speaking, or other open Act or Deed to alter or innovate the Claim of Right or any Article thereof. And do protest that this shall not prejudice the being of future Scots Parliaments and Conventions within the Kingdom of Scotland at no time coming. After reading thereof he took Instruments thereupon, and it was agreed that at calling the Rolls the Adherers to the above Protest shall be so marked, and also that the said Members be marked as they shall vote approve or not, and that a List of their Names as they shall vote pro or con shall be printed. And the Lord Chancellor was allowed to have his Name printed and recorded as an Approver. Then the Vote was put, approve of the 3d Article in the Terms of the Motion relating thereto or not, and it carried approve, and some Members adhered to the Protest given in by the M. of Annandale. Then the Lord Chancellor by Order of Her Majesty's high Commissioner adjourned the Parliament till to morrow at 10 of the Clock.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Tuesday Nov. 19. Act in favours of the Incorporations of Elders for a Maiden Hospital, read for a second time, and voted and approved. The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Parliament, that last Night his Grace her Majesty's High Commissioner, in his return to the Palace, was insulted by a Number of People of the meanest degree with Stones, which was an high Affront both to her Majesty's High Commissioner and to the Parliament; and therefore moved that the Parliament may give the necessary Orders, not only to find out such as have been guilty as Actors or Abettors therein, but to prevent the like in time coming; and after some Reasoning on the said Representation and Motion, it was agreed to remit to the Committee for examining the Calculation of the Equivalent, to inquire into the matter of this Insult, and to endeavour to find out the Actors and Abettors, if any be, with power to the said Committee to promise Indemnities and Rewards for discoverers, and to seize and imprison any Person whom they shall have ground to suspect to be guilty as Actors or Abettors, and to call for the Magistrats and Neighbours bour of Edinburgh for Information, and to report to the Parliament what Information and Discovery they shall make of the said Insult, or of any former; as also to report their Opinion what Measures may be proper for preventing the like in time coming. And the Committee appointed to meet the first Interval Day of Parliament at Nine of the Clock. The Parliament did likewise recommend to the Lord High Constable to prosecute forthwith those Persons who were Imprison'd on account of a former Tumult, and ordain'd the Magistrates of Edinburgh to furnish what Probation they can to the Fiscal of the Constable's Court against such as were so Imprison'd. Address of the Baillifs, Councillors, and Citizens of St. Andrews subscribers of the same, against an Union with England in the Terms of the Articles, given in and Read. Petition for the Laird of Grant Elder, craving a remit to the Lords of Session in place of the Commission for valuation of Lands for determining an Action to be rais'd by him in relation to the Lands of Plurscurdie again Read, and no Answers being given in thereto. As also the Ministers and Heritors of Elgin being publickly called, the Parliament remitted the determination of the said Action to the Commission for Plantation of Kirks, and valuation of Lands in case any such Commission shall be named, and failing the said Nomination to the Lords of Session. Petition for Sir Patrick Home of Renton against the Earl of Home, craving a remit to the Lords of Session for determining an Action upon a Protest for remedy of Law at his Instance of a Declaration obtain'd against him by the Earl of Home Read, and the Earl of Home ordained to see and answer the same. Thereafter it was moved that the Parliament proceed to the 4th Article of Union. Moved also that before proceeding to the Consideration of the 4th Article, a Clause be added to the 3d Article in these Terms; and that the said Parliament of Great-Britain shall meet and sit once in 3 Years at least in that Part of Great-Britain now called Scotland. And after some Debate thereupon, the Consideration of the said additional Clause delayed till the Parliament come to the 22d Article. Then the 4th Article of Union was read and after some Discourse thereupon, the further Consideration thereof was delayed till the next sederunt of Parliament, and the Consideration thereof to be then resumed previous to all other Business. Then the Parliament was adjourned till Thursday next.
